School Improvement Work.

In planting trees several things must be remembered. First, the holes should be dug deep, and larger than the roots which are to occupy them; and partly filled with the best soil obtainable. Secondly, in digging up the trees, many of the small roots and practically all the root hair, which absorb the moisture have been destroyed. In order to preserve the between root and top, the latter must be severely pruned. Otherwise the tree will probably die. Third, a transplanted tree needs an inordinate amount of water, and should be thoroughly soaked about the roots frequently for several weeks until new root hairs can be developed. Fourth, the ground about the roots should be cultivated occasionally the first year to a depth of several inches. This prevents the soil from drying out too deeply, yet compels the roots to grow deeply to secure a proper amount of moisture. Mulching with grass or straw is also to be recommended.

The same principles should be applied to shrubs and vines also, and if these points are observed closely, failure can hardly occur.

Perennials need to be planted in large holes filled with good earth. Soil in which a considerable amount of vegetable mold or rotted manure has been incorporated gives best results. The roots should be set a couple of inches below the surface, and well watered after planting. In winter a coat of well rotted manure should be placed over them to prevent excessive freezing and thawing. This tends also to enrich the soil.

Seeds require a good soil, deeply spaded, and care must be taken not to sow them too deep. Fine seeds, like poppy, petunia, etc., need merely to be sprinkled on the surface, with a little fine earth sifted over them. They should be sprinkled with water at intervals till they germinate. The larger seeds, as sweet peas, four o'clocks, sunflowers, etc., should be placed from one to three inches below the surface, and watered thoroughly.

By following the foregoing instructions even the novice at planting should be able to secure most gratifying results. The good which would result from the systematic planting of trees, shrubs and flowers in all the grounds of our rural schools can scarcely be estimated, certainly not overestimated.

Given under my hand as Chairman of the Republican Executive committee of Wolfe county, this April 10, 1908.

GEO. W. LOVELACE.

The Republican candidates for Circuit Judge of this Judicial district, have agreed to submit their claims to a primary election, to be held some time in May.

A BILL has been introduced in Congress by Representative Langley, carrying with it an appropriation of $50,000,000, having for its object government assistance in building good roads throughout the land.

The editor of this paper was 63 years of age this morning at about one o'clock, if our recollection is not at fault, and 23 of them have been spent in the interest of the mountain people. If appreciated it will show within a week.

A. Floyd Byrd, of Winchester, is announced in this issue as a candidate for congress, as will be seen by his card, and he of course, submits his claims to the Democratic party. Floyd Byrd is perhaps better known by reason of his prosecution of the Hargis, Callahan feud cases than any one in Kentucky. Throughout the trials of the parties in those cases he stood as the Rock of Gibraltar for the law and for the right. Many men with the threats that assailed would have flunked. But Floyd Byrd proved that he was not of that kind of material and every one of the law and order party thought him a hero. If he were thus true the sequence is that he would be a power in the national hall of congress. Viewed from this standpoint the 800 majority attained by the Republicans is a mere bagatelle. Should he get the nomination Mr. Langley will have to get up and hump himself. The district is not Republican, the election of Mr. Langley to the contrary notwithstanding. The latter's popularity as against the self-made unpopularity of his opponent caused the temporary downfall of Democracy, but with a popular standard bearer like Mr. Byrd there is every reason to hope that Democracy will again become triumphant. Mr. Byrd is apparently not antagonized in his aspirations within the party, and this of itself will strengthen him. In any event should he receive the nomination Wolfe county, with whose interests he has been identified for years, it being the alma mater of his existence, would give him an overwhelming majority. Democrats will look well to their interests in considering his claims and we feel assured they will treat him right.

Squire Elias Shockey is this week announced as a candidate for County Judge of Wolfe county, and submits his claims to the Democratic primary. For twelve years continuously he was a magistrate of this county. Then he was out of office four years, and appointed to fill a new district for one year and then elected for four years. Thousands of cases came before him during the time and to his credit is the fact that never was one of his decisions reversed. And another thing which is very important is the fact that during the last four years he turned in more money than any other magistrate in Wolfe county. The records show these facts, and thinking people will realize that he has the qualifications necessary to fill the office to which he aspires. Since he has been out of office he has been a practicing attorney.

And all these but add to his qualifications. We therefore take it that he will be justly treated and leave him to his constituents.

Among the announcements in our issue this week will be found that of George W. Salley, of Stillwater, who is a candidate for the office of sheriff of Wolfe county and submits his claims to the Democratic primary election, if one be held. George Salley is a native of Virginia, but has lived in Kentucky for nearly a half century, and ever since he became a voter he has voted with the Democratic party. But even before that he worked for his friends. He is the only one of the Salley family who has ever asked for office. He was assessor of this county one term and his record showed that he fulfilled every duty incumbent upon him. Should he be elected to the office of sheriff he says, and his friends behind him, that he will be just as faithful to duty. With these few remarks we leave him in the hands of the party, satisfied they will do him right.

Monie, the second daughter of R. J. McLin and wife, is very ill of erysipelas, but Dr. Nickell has the trouble under control.

A CARD

To the Democrats of the Tenth Congressional District of Kentucky.

Many partial friends of mine, representing nearly every county in the district, have been kind enough to express the desire that I become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress.

I heartily appreciate their allegiance and I do not hesitate to say that I should be gratified to become the representative from the district, but I am fully aware of the difficulties in the way of Democratic success in a district which gave a Republican majority of about 800 in the last congressional race, and 600 in the recent election for governor, and I would not be willing to enter upon a bitter contest for the nomination.

I have accordingly talked with every Democrat who I could learn had any congressional aspirations, but have found no one who is a candidate; in fact, practically all of them have said to me, either in person or by letter, that they were not and would not become candidates.

The Republicans have already called their convention for May 5, and, in most of the other districts nominations are being made, or conventions have been called for that purpose. Feeling, therefore, that it is time the Democrats were taking some action in this district, and, believing, as I do, that with a united Democracy there is a good chance for our party's success at the coming election, I have decided to announce my candidacy.

Earnestly soliciting the support of all Democrats, and promising, if nominated, to make every reasonable effort to win, and, if elected, to devote my time and energies to advancing the interests of my constituents, I am,

Yours very truly,

A. F. BYRD.

CONGRESSMAN JOHN W. LANGLEY has introduced a bill to pay every veteran of the civil war a dollar a day for the remainder of his life. He says he may not be able to get it enacted as a law this session of congress, but that he is confident he will be able to put it through at next session. Where a man is totally disabled, as very many of the old veterans are, no less than what Mr. Langley calls for is adequate for their support.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and its address, Birmingham, N. Y., on every bottle.

$25 in Free Presents.

The Wolfe County Democratic Primary Election to select candidates for the various county offices will be held in the summer some time, and THE HERALD avails of the occasion to increase its subscription list and at the same time give its subscribers $25.00 in useful articles, such as watches and chains, razors, combination handy tool holder, &c.

The price of THE HERALD is $1.00 a year, in advance, and every subscriber is entitled to one estimate. Old subscribers who pay up arrearages and one year in advance are also entitled to one estimate. The one who sends in the closest estimate will receive a gold plated watch and chain; next nearest gold plated watch and aluminum fob, next a fine razor, &c. Use the estimate coupon attached. Write your name plainly and make figures of estimate very distinct. Then enclose $1.00 with the coupon and mail to this office. These coupons will be filed and the day after the election a disinterested committee will take charge of them and determine who is entitled to the presents.

The Presents That Will Be Awarded.
The person making the nearest estimate will receive a gold-plated American watch, good time piece, and plated chain, $10.00
The person making the second closest estimate will receive American watch, good time piece, and aluminum fob, 6.50
The person making the third closest estimate will receive an American made razor, as good as any ever produced, 2.50

Not a drop of Alcohol

Doctors prescribe very little, if any, alcohol these days. They prefer strong tonics and alteratives. This is all in keeping with modern medical science. It explains why Ayer's Sarsaparilla is now made entirely free from alcohol. Ask your doctor. Follow his advice.

We publish our formulas
We banish alcohol

We urge you to

Unless there is daily action of the bowels, poisonous products are absorbed, causing headache, biliousness, nausea, dyspepsia. We wish you would ask your doctor about correcting your constipation by taking laxative doses of Ayer's Pills.

THE HERALD.

DRINK WAINSCOTT'S POP.

Rev. J. P. Bicknell, evangelist of the Christian church, went to Berea on business.

Kash, Johnson & Kash request us to announce that they are making a run on "Shield Brand" clothing.

Born, April 20, to the wife of Dr. Taylor Center, a 12-pound boy. The doctor is so proud of the event that he steps about like a newly crowned king.

Sam Wilson last week finished painting Hon. J. P. Rose's new house. All who have seen it declare it one of the handsomest in the mountains. His next move was to Ezel.

H. F. Pieratt, president of the Hazel Green Bank and a large real estate holder in our town, came over from Richmond the latter part of last week and sold a house and lot to Hal Smith.

The Easter exercises of the juveniles of the academy, under the auspices of Miss Jeannette Gridley, held at the Christian church, Sunday night, were very interesting and instructive.

Dr. G. M. Center reports that the infant child of Paris Rose and wife, who has been seriously ill of membranous croup for fourteen days past, is now rapidly convalescing under antitoxine treatment.

Frank Mannin, a young man raised by Uncle Bill McNabb, was shot and killed by Fielden McNabb, a nephew of Uncle Bill, Saturday at Dundee. The cause of the trouble was not ascertained.

FOR SALE.—Gas and gasoline engine; 15 h. p. with grist mill, capacity 150 bushels corn a day; engine and mill best quality and in A No. 1 order; price reasonable. Call on or write J. M. TRENT, 35-4f Trent, Ky.

Miss Roxie Daniel, who has been attending State College at Lexington and keeping house for her brother, Elwood Daniel, who is also a student at the same institution, came home Saturday to visit her parents, Quint Daniel and wife.

A private letter from R. J. McLin to his wife, received Saturday night, states that in addition to his other ailments J. B. McLin, Sr., his father, has developed a case of Bright's disease and grave fears are entertained for his recovery.

Rev. W. P. Halsey requests us to announce that he will preach at the Caskey school house Saturday, May 23, and Sunday, May 24. Preaching will begin Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and Sunday morning at 10:30. Bro. Whittaker is also expected to be present.

Dr. A. C. Nickell tells us he will be compelled to break up house-keeping, owing to his wife's failing health, and offers his house, garden, barn and a fine well of water for rent. This is a nice little home that some one may rent at a bargain by applying to him at once, in time for garden.

ACADEMY NOTES.

Leonard Nickell went home Sunday, returning Monday.

Bro. Derthick went to Lancaster, Monday, in the interest of academy.

The H. B. and B. K. societies played ball against the U. D. society, resulting in a score of 12 to 9 in favor of the former.

Clayborne and Leonard Johnson were guests of their brother, J. H. Johnson, at Malaga, on Stillwater, Saturday and Sunday.

Jonathan Stambaugh and Joseph Eastep visited the Sunday school on Lacy creek, where the former also filled his regular appointment.

The writer accompanied Prof. Clark to Daysboro, Sunday, where the latter organized a Sunday school. Over 20 scholars were present and the outlook seems very promising.

The Junior Christian Endeavor society gave an Easter entertainment at the Christian church Sunday night. The little folks acquitted themselves with honor, which is largely due to the efficient work of Mrs. Gridley.

The H. B. literary society rendered their best and last program of the year Saturday evening, beginning at 7 o'clock. The whole program was highly instructive, interesting and entertaining. The president, Joseph Eastep, and the secretary, Jo Hord Frank, deserve special mention for their very effective work. A five-cent admission fee was charged, the proceeds to go to the support of the ball team.

Wolfe County's Aged Citizens.

Elder H. Branson preached at the Spencer church house, in this county, on the fourth Saturday, and the Sunday following, in March. He was assisted by Rev. P. R. Hobbs, of the Primitive Baptist church. Elder Branson reports a good meeting and says that at this meeting he met with Uncle Joe Lewis, who is 73 years of age and in poor health; Uncle Andy Spencer, aged 77, in poor health; Wm. Cornett, aged 84, in good health and able to perform manual labor; Mrs. Nan Oliver, of Flatwoods, this county, 84 years old and in good health; Uncle Johnnie Hollon, 84 years old and in good health, and Rev. John Wilson, 73 years of age and able to be on the streets of Campton attending to his regular business. Elder Branson also knew Uncle Harrison Swango, of Hazel Green, who died March 30, aged 93 years. —Beattyville Enterprise.

Wanted.—We want to purchase, delivered not later than June 1st to our mill on Lacy creek, 100,000 first-class 27, 23 and 18 inch staves. According to the provisions of a contract which we made when timber was at the highest, we can pay you more for rough staves than can be realized for same dressed and delivered to New York at the present time.

and you may see the effect in the increased trade at Murphy's store, at Helechawa. People are going in crowds to Ben Murphy's store to get goods of all kinds, especially ladies' and gents' hats, shoes, slippers and in fact all their dress goods, from finest silk down, and anything you need. Prices tell; so does advertising, and Ben sells things very low. 34-4

Prohibition Call.

Vice Chairman Hiram W. Davis, of Louisville, has called a meeting of the State Central committee of the Prohibition party for April 29, at Pentecostal Tabernacle, Louisville, to consider the matter of holding a State convention and of appointing delegates to the National convention, to be held in Columbus, Ohio, July 15. Kentucky is entitled to 37 delegates and an equal number of alternates to this convention. If it is decided not to hold a State convention, the delegates will be appointed by the committee. National Chairman Charles R. Jones, of Chicago, will meet with the committee.

It will be well for those who desire to be candidates for delegates to send their names to the vice chairman to be presented to the committee.

He Got What He Needed.

"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says C. Farthing, of Mill Creek, I. T. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I have been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at all dealers. 50c

A Woman Can—

Abolish unnecessary noise. Establish traveling libraries, and so bring reading matter within the reach of all.

Clean up her own back yard and make it such a thing of beauty that it will be an inspiration to her neighbors.

Secure lighted streets at night and thereby prevent crimes.

Insist upon paved sidewalks.

Demand clean streets, and get them.

Help to prevent the injustice of child labor.

Do away with immoral theatres, moving picture shows and postal cards.

Arouse public interest in the public welfare.

Keep her garbage box clean and covered, and insist upon her fellow citizens doing the same.

She can, because she has done every one of these things. And when she does them all towns and cities will be clean, happy, wholesome places in which to live.—The May Delineator.

Rufus Hale, a confederate of the Home at Pewee Valley, was here a few days the latter part of last week shaking hands with old friends and acquaintances. He had on the regular Confederate uniform worn by those at the Home, which is neat and tasty, and he speaks in glowing terms of the treatment the old soldiers receive. He says there are now about 250 stopping there. John F. Hurt, who was with THE HERALD a short time a few years ago, is there now.

Hon. John W. Langley requests us to announce that the seeds for free distribution will be sent forward in a few days. A fire destroyed the supply that was intended for this purpose and the agricultural department had to look about and get another supply. Hence the delay.

KENTUCKY KERNELS

Carefully Collated and Concisely Chronicled.

Uncle Davy Hall, aged 100 years, died at his home on the border of Knott and Floyd counties. He went there when quite young from Clermont county, Ohio.

A spark from a passing engine set fire to South's warehouse, in Frankfort, and 40,000 pounds of hemp belonging to the Kentucky River Hemp Mills went up in smoke. Loss $6,000.

While prescribing for a patient in his office at Winchester, Dr. L. H. McKinley, one of the most prominent physicians in Clark county, was stricken with heart trouble and expired in a few minutes.

Bub Turner, of Simpson county, was last week arrested on the charge of using the mails to defraud. He ordered a revolver from a Chicago firm, sending in payment a check for $17.50, which, it is claimed, was worthless.

In a pistol fight in Breathitt county, one day last week, between Bill Bailey on one side and George Mays and Squire Cesar Hurst on the other, Bailey was fatally wounded. A woman is said to be the cause of the trouble.

The three boys who were arrested recently in Cincinnati for robbing the Louisville public library safe and taken back for trial, were dismissed after a severe reprimand by the judge and promising to be good boys in the future.

It is currently reported that about 500 acres of tobacco will be grown this year in Fayette county, notwithstanding the "no crop" cry. The growers have formed protective associations and are guarding tobacco beds night and day.

The $100,000 damage suit of the heirs of the late Dr. B. D. Cox against the late Judge James Hargis, Elbert Hargis and Ed Callahan, was settled last week at Jackson by compromise. The basis of settlement, it is said, was $4,600.

William H. Murphy, aged 67, a prominent figure on the Louisville "breaks," died in that city the other day of complications incident to old age. He was a well known Mason, and was one of the best informed tobacco men in the state.

Through the intervention of Hon. John W. Langley, President Roosevelt pardoned James M. Gose, of Jackson, who was serving a seven years' term in the Leavenworth military prison for taking a pair of shoes from a fellow-soldier while intoxicated.

A band of about 200 night riders went to the farm of Samson Tomlin, in Grant county, for the purpose of destroying his tobacco beds, but were greeted with a volley of bullets and took to their heels. It is believed that some of the riders were wounded, as blood spots were seen in the road next morning.

In taking Logan Sizemore, of Perry county, to the penitentiary at Frankfort recently, sentenced to serve 21 years for killing James Stacy, Sheriff Mack Eversole was compelled to make trip from Hazard to Jackson on a raft. The sheriff's wife guarded the prisoner, while her husband guided the rude craft.

While fishing near Elkatawah, one day last week, Will Tharp, son of the late "Tricky" Tom Tharp, and son of "Dock" Mullins fought with knives and young Tharp was seriously cut. The fight was the outcome of the killing of the elder Tharp by Ed Mullins, another son of "Dock," about two years ago.

At the annual stallion show at the Lexington fair grounds recently only about forty horses were shown. The stallions on many of the leading breeding farms around Lexington are always on exhibition to visitors, and their owners did not wish to take chances on accidents by leading them to and from the fair grounds.

Hon. T. B. Blakey, of Beattyville, has been appointed second assistant attorney general, an office created by the recent legislature. The salary is $3,500 a year. Mr. Blakey is one of the best men in Eastern Kentucky and is an excellent lawyer. His appointment is especially pleasing to the Republicans of the Tenth district.

Recipe Easily Prepared at Small Cost, and Many Swear By It.

Mix the following by shaking well in a bottle, and take in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. A local druggist is the authority that these simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at nominal cost from our home druggist.

The mixture is said to cleanse and strengthen the clogged and inactive kidneys, overcoming backache, bladder weakness and urinary trouble of all kinds, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease.

Those who have tried this say it positively overcomes pain in the back, clears the urine of sediment and regulates urination, especially at night, curing even the worst forms of bladder weakness.

Every man or woman here who feels that the kidneys are not strong or acting in a healthy manner should mix this prescription at home and give it a trial, as it is said to do wonders for many persons.

The Scranton (Pa.) Times was first to print this remarkable prescription, in October, of 1906, since when all the leading newspapers of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and other cities have made many announcements of it to their readers.

Some ladies suffer, every month, from dark rings round their eyes, blotches on their skin and tired feeling. Others suffer agonies of pain, that words can hardly express.

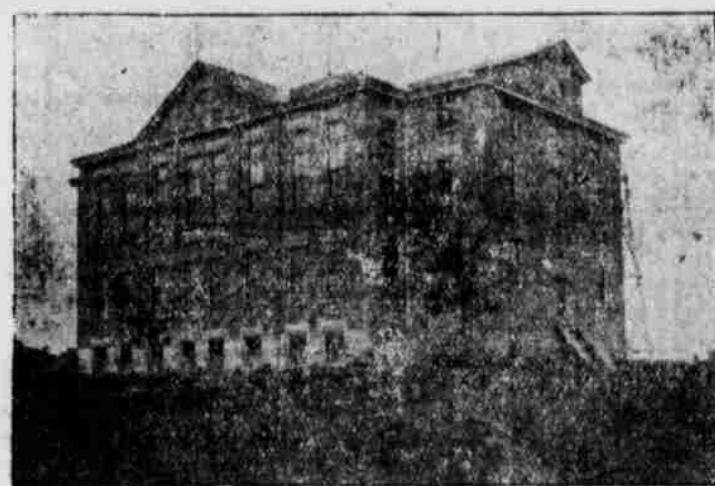

Whatever the symptoms, remember there is one medicine that will go beyond mere symptoms, and act on the cause of their troubles, the weakened womanly organs.
